Excelsior Division Moves Into Larger Quarters — Stages Splendid Meeting

Enthusiasm Reigns Supreme at Opening of Excelsior Liberty Hall

New York, N. Y., Sunday Night, March 30th, 1930.—With a thirty-five piece band discoursing military airs to give inspiration to the friends and visitors who attended, and with their new Liberty Hall trimmed and dazzling with brilliant lights, the Excelsior Division, No. 114, Universal Negro Improvement Association, (August 1929 of the World), moved into the large and spacious hall, situated at the Northwest corner of Lenox Avenue and 144th Street (687 Lenox Avenue) amid the congratulations of their friends, and the rejoicings of the officers and members.

Rally to The Great Six Hundred Million Dollar Drive—"Every One Must Do His Part"—Says President-General

FELLOWMEN OF THE NEGRO RACE AND FRIENDS, Greeting:
The world moves on, and incidentally we move with it; but our movement is encumbered and circumscribed. The space allotted to us is limited, so that even though we move with the world we are moving at a terrible disadvantage.

Not Slaves of the World
It is for me to inspire the four hundred million Negroes of the world to the fact that, they are not the slaves of the world, but masters of it -- masters of its environments, masters of its conditions. The world can only yield that which we desire to get out of it. Unfortunately we have not thought in this direction, and so we have reduced our competency, we have failed to use the world to our advantage.

Cincinnati Garvey Club Moves Into Spacious Liberty Hall

Opening Marked by Impressive Ceremonies and Monster Mass Meeting—Encouraging Letter From Hon. Marcus Garvey Stirs Audience to High Pitch

Sunday, March 16th, was a gala day for the Cincinnati Garvey Club, as the members moved into their new Liberty Hall, one of the finest available for Negroes in Cincinnati.

occasion. This was followed with silent prayer for the deliverance of the Hon. Marcus Garvey, and that God's blessings might crown our efforts with success. We are confident from the results obtained, that the meeting had served its purpose.

Build Structure

We want to build a structure to insure our prominence in the world in the affairs of Finance, Industry, Commerce, Science, Art, and Nation building. This is the urge to-day. We must all gather our forces, stand together like men and execute this urge. We can do it by concentrating upon the great programme before us—the programme of raising our International Fund of Six Hundred Million dollars to capitalize our work.

Contribute Something
If every individual will pledge himself in ten years to contribute so much towards this Fund and pay it in, Why! what a tremendous impetus we would have given the cause before us. Let every Negro man, woman and child who reads this message this week communicate with the Secretary-General of the Universal Negro Improvement Association, 67 Slippe Road, Cross Roads P. O. St. Andrews, Jamaica, B. W. I., and give in their names and addresses and pledge a substantial amount for ten years to be paid towards this Fund. You can pledge to pay in ten thousand dollars, five thousand dollars, three thousand dollars, one thousand dollars, five hundred dollars, three hundred dollars, one hundred dollars in ten years towards this Fund. For everyone to do this, will mean we will have the money and then we will be able to execute the program.

Be Energetic
Let us re-dedicate ourselves energetically, and forcefully by rallying together, realizing that the older our comes our chance to redeem or to reclaim ourselves, so whatsoever is to be done must be done now so that our hopes will be realized.

Arguments In The Marcus Garvey Appeal Case

Clear Intimation That Appeal Will Be Allowed—In Matter of Garvey and Aikman in Seditious Libel Charge

(From The Blackman)
Kingston, Jamaica, B. W. I., March 17.—An admittedly one-sided legal conflict in the Full Court—the highest tribunal of the land—resulted yesterday in the complete collapse of the prosecution in the sensational appeal of Messrs. Marcus Garvey and Theophilus Augustus Aikman who were convicted for seditious libel on the 21st of February, and sentenced to six months and three months respectively by Mr. A. K. Agar, Resident Magistrate for Kingston.

ments of Messrs. Foster Sutton and Radcliffe (Counsel for the defendant, Marcus Garvey, and for the Crown, respectively), presented no problem to the Bench, and shortly after the post-luncheon interval submissions were completed on both sides relative to the only two grounds of appeal in Mr. Garvey's defense on which the Court thought it necessary to base the whole case; namely, the jurisdiction of the Resident Magistrate and the sufficiency or otherwise of the Attorney General's Fiat.

Let us re-dedicate ourselves energetically, and forcefully by rallying together, realizing that the older our comes our chance to redeem or to reclaim ourselves, so whatsoever is to be done must be done now so that our hopes will be realized.

Mammoth Chorus Sings On June 11

Wednesday Night Selected For Benefit of All Citizens and Congress Messengers

CHICAGO, Ill.—Because there will be thousands of visitors from many sections of the United States here Wednesday morning, June 11th, who will not get in earlier and could not witness the big demonstration, the great Sunday School Congress Chorus will have its first appearance at the Ebenezer Baptist Church, Forty-fifth and Vincennes, on Wednesday night, June 11th. This shift in the plans and change of program became imperative because hundreds of messengers must almost cross the United States to get to Chicago.

"The Naval Conference Riddle"

AFTER a lapse of seven previous weeks, the representatives of various nations gathered around the conference table in St. James Palace, London, England, in what is known as the London Naval Conference, have left the waiting world with no clearer idea of what it is all about than at the beginning on February 6th.

American representatives at that conference have come to the realization that there is really a lack of sincerity on the part of more than one nation whose representatives sit at the great conference table; and are anxiously feeling their way toward a settlement which might be satisfactory to all. The evidence is not wanting, that there is a great deal of history, but the evidence is not wanting, that there is a great deal of industrial reduction of naval armaments. This leads to the conclusion which we drew at the very inception of the conference! It is merely a game of bluff, each with the single exception of America, seeking to outplay the other nations into a position and an agreement by which that particular one may secure some advantage.

Wise men all over the world can offer satisfactory solutions to the present race of armaments. Why do not France, England and Italy give up all their pretensions to dominance over the other races of the world? Why not recall French troops from the Sudan, the Levant, from Syria, and Indo-China? The recall of British troops from the scattered portions of Africa and India, and the quartering them either in Canada, Australia or New Zealand, would automatically solve their vast problems, not only naval but military armaments as well. And Italy would ease herself of endless trouble by the return orders issued to Italian soldiers in Italian Somaliland, and Tripoli.

Do the nations want peace? Are they in earnest about the reduction of armaments, naval as well as military? America is willing and ready to meet any reduction on a fair and equitable basis; but until Great Britain, France and Italy show real common sense, and true sincerity, America will do well to stand aloof from any kind of entangling alliances. This is the key to the Naval Conference Riddle.

"A Call to U. N. I. A. Leaders"

EVERY day brings new demands upon the leadership of the men who stand in the forefront of the great organization known as the Universal Negro Improvement Association (August, 1929) of the World. Every day there is the requirement that those who are the leaders in this the greatest organization of Negroes in the history of the race, must go boldly forth to lead the race onward and upward to the realization of its dreams and the freedom of the Negro.

The cries of the Negro masses, in this broad land, and other lands where Negroes dwell, rise up each day uniting in one common call. "We are tired, God give us men who will not cringe, or turn aside, but boldly to breast the tide; men who can suffer and be strong; men who can give straight the throng, who follow where their leaders tread, in the great strife for daily bread; men who when the tempest brews, or when the storm on fields our bodies strew, can animate the throng to fight for the peace of Country, God and Right; men who fear not death, hell or danger; men, each to suffering no stranger; men who can fight for Negroes just; men who can die, if die they must—God give us men!"

The standards are exacting, but the rewards are great. The discipline must necessarily be strict and severe, but there is a whole race waiting to be saved. This call therefore comes to those who stand in the forefront of this great organization, urging us to rise up to the exacting and strict standards which have been set, and without which we can have no peace. This is no time for dawdling. The present moment is not the time for the saying: "He who hesitates is lost!" To the courageous souls with the strong right arms, the stout hearts, and the undying faith, let us call upon every leader, no matter what place he occupies, must measure up to the standard, and produce results in accordance with the capacity of his trust, and the immensities of the demands of the age. The weakest will surely go to the wall. The stalwart, the strong, the true, the brave, the unflinching, and the unswerving leaders will have the glory, and the great rewards. Are we going to put on our whole armor of racial confidence and step up under the banner of the Twentieth Century, and help to lead our destiny for this race, and without which all creation will be perished? Or are we going to allow the awakened throng of Negroes to pass us by unheeded, to our chagrin and dismay.

Listen U. N. I. A. leaders! There never was a period in the history of mankind when there was such opportunity for unselfish deeds, and for service that will bring lasting renown, and undying fame. Will our names be written in the hearts of mankind in the days to come? Will the proud halls of a free and redeemed Africa resound with our praises, when that glad day comes? Shall we die craven fawns? Shall we miss the greatest opportunities that have come to mortal men? Shall we off dull, and face the skies. Look the world in the face, and take your place in the vanguard of a race. Unflinchingly stand for the freedom of the Negro, and die if need be, leading the race to victory of the grave.

"Negro Nationhood"

EACH fresh atrocity perpetrated upon the Negro peoples of the World convinces us more and more that there can be but one solution for the problems confronting Negroes, wherever on this earth they may be found: and that answer is to be found in the subject of this editorial, "Negro Nationhood!"

Human nature has had a trial for centuries and centuries, and the same conclusion is reached, no matter what angle the question is considered. No soft platitudes can satisfy the soul of the awakened, forward-looking Negro of the present day. Every vestige of slavery has been washed away and forbearance is at the breaking point. The Negro must shift for himself, and no matter what his

Editor, Negro World: Once more the news has been broadcast to the world that our fearless champion, Hon. Marcus Garvey, has been named for the presidency of the U. N. I. A. for the future. The black man's history is now in the hands of the world, and the obstacle placed in his upward path should be noted and passed on to succeeding generations.

As what Americans would resent the refusal of Mexico to admit President Hoover to Mexico, so should every African and member of the Universal Negro Improvement Association resent the insult tendered our hero in the person of His Excellency, Governor Marcus Garvey, President-General of the Universal Negro Improvement Association and the Negro World.

Such conduct on the part of governments should be carefully registered and noted by every effort among us to enhance the business program of the race of Negroes.

Experience from his folly... In appointing an advisory committee to investigate the new vocational school plan submitted by the Board of Education, the Negro business man has again completely ignored Negro business.

The only relief that we can hope for in the future is from the development of Negro business so that it can absorb more and more of the graduates of our schools. The board members and officials may think that because they are wearing rose-colored glasses everything is rosy now, but they will soon find that what they thought was a rose-tinted glow on the horizon is a dangerous black cloud of doom.

LINCOLN AND DOUGLASS

The entire civilized world paused to celebrate the anniversary of the birth of two great Americans. One of our heroes, the other a log cabin, became by dint of perseverance and native ability, a national and international figure—Abraham Lincoln, the other a slave in Maryland, became through his love of right and great oratorical ability, the foremost leader in the abolition of slavery fight in the 19th century. Subsequently he was honored by appointment as U. S. Marshall and Minister to Haiti, and Recorder of Deeds.

There is a great lesson in the lives of these two great men, for all of us. No matter how low our station in life may be at birth, we can rise to the heights of greatness, and preserve honesty, courageously, and righteously, and we can be the recipients of great power and influence and service.

China is still groping in the dark as far as its internal progress is concerned. Its foreign policy would have been more effective if there was some one to lead the Chinese who expect the conditions as they now prevail. China cannot help it, for those conditions are brought about by historical facts.

Reemergence of any country, either as a nation or as a people, is a matter of time. It is a matter of time, and it is a matter of time, and it is a matter of time.

VINCENT TREANOR (In the New York Evening World) says that the race fighters are in the limelight. He says that the race fighters are in the limelight, and that the race fighters are in the limelight.

The conference has had many setbacks from the onset of government in France and the clamorous changes in policies of the various delegates.

What this column said of the ultimate importance of naval reduction at such a time holds out a prospect of capitulating our criticism we let the humorous Mr. Will Rogers put it in his own way over criticism become more trenchant if it is salted with a dash of humor.

The daily diary of a London conference held in London, according to Mr. Rogers, as follows: "Up early, so would have more to our present, shall give place to a glorious emulation of patriotism; and, O my country! if God so please, thou shalt be united, prosperous, and perpetual."

Mr. Burgess is right, for the awake Negro is now looking towards his fatherland Africa. Yours for Africa's freedom, LESLIE BISHOP.

Every Attack Upon Garvey Is An Attack Upon the U. N. I. A.

Editor, Negro World: Once more the news has been broadcast to the world that our fearless champion, Hon. Marcus Garvey, has been named for the presidency of the U. N. I. A. for the future.

Such conduct on the part of governments should be carefully registered and noted by every effort among us to enhance the business program of the race of Negroes.

They come; oh they come; and they will keep coming, because of their being allured by the promises of the biggest, brightest, and the best Negro weekly on earth, which is the slogan of our campaign.

"Subscriptions"

Don't forget to join the jolly throng of the thousands of new subscribers to The Negro World, as they come rolling in to swell the ranks!

They come; oh they come; and they will keep coming, because of their being allured by the promises of the biggest, brightest, and the best Negro weekly on earth, which is the slogan of our campaign.

Editorial Opinions of the Negro Press

NEGRO BUSINESS IGNORED
"A warning for the future, so may profit by his errors, do not repeat them." This is the motto of the Negro business man.

Experience from his folly... In appointing an advisory committee to investigate the new vocational school plan submitted by the Board of Education, the Negro business man has again completely ignored Negro business.

The only relief that we can hope for in the future is from the development of Negro business so that it can absorb more and more of the graduates of our schools.

When will our school officials realize that their obligations to the students do not end when they are taught how to read and write?—The Washington Tribune.

LINCOLN AND DOUGLASS

The entire civilized world paused to celebrate the anniversary of the birth of two great Americans. One of our heroes, the other a log cabin, became by dint of perseverance and native ability, a national and international figure—Abraham Lincoln, the other a slave in Maryland, became through his love of right and great oratorical ability, the foremost leader in the abolition of slavery fight in the 19th century.

There is a great lesson in the lives of these two great men, for all of us. No matter how low our station in life may be at birth, we can rise to the heights of greatness, and preserve honesty, courageously, and righteously, and we can be the recipients of great power and influence and service.

"Call Africa's Sons"

Ye members of the Negro race, Come forth and take your stand. Come, let us hear the voice of Africa, To redeem dear Africa's land.

Where will the relief come of the greatest figures of the 19th century was that out-

 W. I. A., and to build a great structure on the foundation so ed upon every one present, to the demands of the hour, following in the footsteps of the leader, the Hon. Marcus to rear such structures to the abolition, Negro sagacity, Ne-and Negro achievement manhood, that will with-the assaults of Time, and down into eternity. The audience was loudly appreciative in their responses.

Address by the band, under Maudslowe E. Salter, which was vigorously applauded, was followed by addressing address from the lady present, Mrs. A. Cooper, who seemed to glow with divine inspiration, as she called men and women to rise to higher heights, in helping to put the program over. A short and inspiring address by Master Daniel Samuels came in for a great amount of applause, as was the reading of "The Negro World," by Mrs. K. Colon, which was followed by singing of the hymn "Father of All Creation."

The audience seemed to have a new vision, and entered into the spirit of the occasion. A recitation by Miss Jeanette Stewart, a splendid address from our friend and brother, Mr. Oscar Biggins, a selection by the band, and a soul-stirring address by Mr. S. Kelly, 2nd vice-president, and a fiery address and appeal to the parents by Mrs. K. Colon, were greatly appreciated by the gathering, and came in for great applause; then came the singing of the hymn "Oh, Africa Awaken." This hymn seemed to be echoed forth from the innumerable recesses of the souls of those who took part. Upon being called on, Major Woodley of the U.
 A. Legion made a great plea for manhood, unity, and co-operation.
 The offerings were raised, while the band discoursed another martial air, and the legion gave a demonstration.

At this juncture the chairman, in suitable words, introduced to the audience the speaker for the evening in the person of Mr. J. E. Samuels, first vice-president. Mr. Samuels gave utterance to words which seemed specially selected to suit the occasion, and the new surroundings, and went straight to the hearts and minds of his hearers, captivating their interest and attention, and holding them in the spell of his inspiring and up-lifting appeal to the very end. The audience was plainly quickened by the force of his oratory, and followed the speaker with rapt attention. His pleas for progress, faithfulness, and manliness was a masterpiece, and won warm approval.

The announcements were made, and then, the official dedication of the hall for Sunday, April 6th, the double meetings for Easter Sunday, April 7th, when friends of nearby churches are invited for the installation of the officers, and the unveiling of the charter, the singing of the Ethiopian National Anthem, "Ethiopia, then land of our Fathers," and the pronouncing of the Benediction by the chaplain, Rev. E. Baxter, to a very delightful, instructive and inspiring meeting to a close at 11:30 p. m.

 the opening ode "From Greenland's Icy Mountains." The chaplain then performed the ritualistic rites which brought to a close the religious ceremonies.

The literary program was made up of choice anthems, sung under the direction of Prof. H. G. Dicks; and solos, duets, and choruses and addresses, from brilliant speakers.

Among the speakers were President Raxor of Erlanger, Ky.; Dr.
 Vaughn of Bethlehem, Judea, and Mr. R. H. Batchelor, who was the principal speaker.

The two opera singers who had us shouting for a long while are Madam McFee (city) and Madam Smith of Oxford, Ohio.

We were highly honored to have the Cincinnati jubilee singers, who rendered several choruses which were repeatedly encored. The beauty of it all, is that these boys sing every Thursday over the radio, an honor accorded to only a few of our group.
 The reading of Mr. Garvey's letter came next. This was one of our encouraging features, and the audience cheered to know that Mr. Garvey was still free, and leading us onward to victory.

The chairman made the closing remarks, followed by one stanza of the Ethiopian National Anthem. Our chaplain pronounced the benediction, and the meeting adjourned.

Our hearts were made to feel happy from such an inspiring and enthusiastic meeting.

Hon. E. Washington

 I admire him best for his manhood and his courage. We American Negroes," continued the speaker, are able, but we haven't any guts." The practical philosophy which Mr.
 Rhodes emitted met a responsive chord in the audience, which was enthusiastic and tolerant.

On Sunday, March 23rd at 3:30 p. m., the principal speaker was Prof.
 Caleb C. Robinson, veteran educator of Virginia, and ex-president of Liberty University. He spoke intimately on Negro education, and praised highly the educational program mapped out for the race by the Association. At 8 p. m. a musical program was rendered by the Madison Four Singers, The Wandering Boys and the Universals. Everybody went away happy.

Race Lad Wins Times Contest

NEW YORK, March 26.—One of the seniors of the Haaren High School, 10th avenue and 59th street, Alfred Lee, a colored boy, received first prize in this school in the Oratorical Contest on the Constitution that is now being conducted by the New York Times. Mr. Lee will compete against the winners of the other high schools in Manhattan on April 16.

Alfred Lee was born in Pennsylvania, and received his earlier education in England and in France. He lives at 244 West 135th street, New York.
 He will be nineteen years old next month. Upon graduation from Haar-en in June, he expects to matriculate at Howard University.

The topic of his address was, "The Negro and the Constitution."

Bar Negro and White Workers on Labor Jury

Five Negro and seven white workers elected on the Labor Jury by unions and unemployed councils elected by 110,000 workers of New York, were barred by Tammany police from attending the trial of the Unemployed Delegation in Special Sessions court yesterday.

Charles Hope, a Negro laundry worker and foreman of the Labor Jury, appeared at the head of the group and demanded entrance. "We were elected to sit in court and watch this case," he said to the police lieutenant, "and we intended making a report of the thousands of workers and unemployed who are demanding the immediate release of their delegation."

The policeman answered by ordering them from the building. Hope led the protests and insisted on their right to be present at the trial. "If the trial is going to be honest," he said, "why are the authorities afraid to let us in?"

His recognition of the fact that a worker cannot get a fair trial under the present system and his voicing of his opinion boldly, caused the police to finally allow the jury to stay in the hallway, but not to come into the courtroom or listen to the case.

The International Labor Defense, which is defending the unemployed delegation, and all the workers arrested March 6th when 1,250,000 workers, white and Negro, marched shoulder to shoulder demanding the courts for not permitting the Labor Jury to enter the courtroom.

"This is further conclusive proof,"
 the International Labor Defense stated, "that the courts are railroading these workers to long prison terms. The Labor Jury as well as any other worker was not allowed in court. The I.L.D. will insist that the Labor Jury, elected by the Trade Union Unity League and Unemployed Councils will enter the court at the trial, April 11, the date to which it was postponed. A mass protest movement of tens of thousands in many cities against the hundreds of arrests of workers, Negro and white, for participating in unemployment demonstrations in many cities on or before March 6 is developing.

Protest Growing North and South
 Two hundred and fifty workers, 175 of whom were Negroes, attended a mass protest meeting in Birmingham, Alabama, yesterday. A resolution was passed unanimously denouncing the brutal police attacks upon the unemployed demonstrations on March 6th and demanding the immediate release of the workers.
