Garvey's Weekly DIGEST

NEGRO RACE.

Greetings:
Once more we have to appeal to you universally, to now buckle on your armor of racial pride and co-operation to go forward in confronting the oppositions and obstacles that stand like a mighty mountain in our way.

Grand Hope
Unfortunately, the report comes from all over the world that we are still the children of discord, of disunity, and of distrust even though we have earnestly sought to forget the ways of evil so that you may become the proud possessors of that grand hope to which all self-respecting people should look.

On to Victory
Characteristically, we have developed a disposition to fight, agitate and obstruct each other, but we do not learn the lesson well that this does not pay? Surely we are not going to continue on the road to destruction?

Because, if we change not our course, sad and unhappy shall be the end. We have hopes—grand hopes;—hopes of prosperity; hopes of success that shall give us new courage to live. That is why the Universal Negro Improvement Association now makes the appeal to every son and daughter of scattered Africa.

We must unite, we must co-operate, we must as one mighty army march on to the given goal; and so the scene is being set and we confidently feel that we, the actors in this mighty play of united good-will, shall lead on to victory.

We see victory before us—a victory through the Universal Negro Improvement Association. Let every unit therefore, of the Race, make up a part of the mighty throng. We want men; we want women and children of the Race everywhere to rally to the colors of the Red, Black and the Green.

A Grand Day
We are looking forward to a grand and glorious day that is to come; we shall co-operate, we shall work for it. At the present time we are universally readjusting ourselves for another glorious day, but before this day we must with our financial and moral support so encourage the Universal Negro Improvement Association as to make those of us who lead feel that everyone is in earnest and we are no longer the victims of this Organization, but that we have caught the vision—the true vision of Africa redeemed, that at home and those abroad.

To Win Successfully
We are making a stirring appeal to those within the Universal Negro Improvement Association who have been bickering with and fighting against each other. Let us close ranks; let us stand together as a universal throng because it is only by this method that we can win successfully.

With very best wishes, I have the honor to be,
Your Obedient Servant,
MARCUS GARVEY,
President-General, Universal Negro Improvement Association of the World, August, 1929.

Wisconsin Legislature Receives Resolution Against Jim Crow Ban
MADISON, Wis.—As a result of the sentiment aroused on the campus of the University of Wisconsin and throughout the state on account of the barring of George Fleming, from membership in Delta Sigma Rho, national honorary speech fraternity, a joint resolution has been introduced in the State assembly declaring the action and scoring the anti-Negro stipulation of the national constitution.

Since news of the denial of membership to Fleming became public, the Wisconsin chapter of the fraternity, the all-student fornicous board, the two men's literary societies and Dr. Glenn Frank, president of the university, have made public their disapproval.

How Youthful Race Aviator Got License

In Europe; After His Return He Buys Own Plane

SURPRISES FOLKS

INSTITUTE, W. Va.—It would be easy enough to interview Millard Brown, but to interview Millard Brown the aviator was a difficult task. Although he had been here for a month or more, this was the first time I had a chance to talk with him about his trip to Europe. As we settled back into comfortable chairs, I exclaimed "Out with it, Proxy." Knowing of what I was speaking, he immediately started.

"Well, well, Larry, strange as it may seem, it was with an overwhelming sense of relief that I sat back in my seat on the train bound for New York. I was at last on the first leg of my journey to take aviation in Europe. In spite of all the discouragements, such as you haven't enough money or you will probably be killed, I sat back with a feeling of pleasant anticipation.

"Having secured my passage on the Isle de France, which was to leave at midnight, I proceeded to take in a few of the customary sights to be seen by the ordinary tourists. Afterwards I went aboard the ship and proceeded to my stateroom. The next morning we were far out on the high seas.

"My breakfast, somewhat to my surprise, was not at all in sympathy with the many fish that followed the boat. In fact I had no trouble in retaining any of my meals throughout the voyage.

"I was leaning against the rail on deck one day about high noon, looking out over the broad rolling waters, when a young man at my side said, 'Hello, Joe's look over the other side.' I asked him what for. He immediately exclaimed, 'That's right; there is nothing but the same water over there.'

"I daresay a good many people who have not crossed the ocean would expect the captain to mingle with the passengers. In fact, I had the same idea myself. You can imagine my disappointment when I learned that the captain only came out during stormy weather and at such times he would stand at his post on the deck for three and four days without sleeping. He would face the teeth of the gale ever watchful for the dangers which might be in his ship's path.

"I was disappointed in France. I guess it was because I had heard so much about the beauty and splendor of sunny France. Let me tell you right now, partner, France is far from being a sunny place. The people looked starved and dirty and the merchants were ready to raise prices as soon as they found out you were an American. The worst part of it was the lack of drinking water, that is, good drinking water. You see, they drink wine almost as freely as we drink water.

"I went down to the airport and started my course of study. After a few lessons I found out that I did not know enough French to understand my instructors. They had me transferred to Reading air field in England, and believe me, boy, I sure could understand those proper Englishmen.

"I was more than pleased with the little town of Reading in England. I had a good place to eat and sleep, which was 20 minutes' walk from the airport.

"The cost of my course was far below the amount I thought it would be, and yet we had fast ships and a well-kept airport. The instructors were very efficient and congenial. Due to excellent weather, a rare thing in England, I was able to get in 70 hours' flying time, including seven hours of solo, in a month's time. After obtaining my license I bid Europe a fond adieu and returned to America. As you know, my Dad met me in New York and bought me a ship, in which I flew home. I landed at the home airport, rejecting over the fact that I had obtained what I went after."

Woman Named Member Of N. J. Commerce Body
MORRISTOWN, N. J.—Miss Helen Hagan, prominent musician, has been appointed a member of the Chamber of Commerce of this city. She is the first colored woman in this section to be so honored. Dr. Ernest Wetmore holds a similar place on the board.

Think Negro Will Have Place in Trade in 1950

The Negro in 1950 will be firmly established in the business world of America, Robert T. Bass, broker, of 80 Wall street, told the members of the Mt. Calvary M. E. Church Forum, 140th street and Edgecombe avenue, Thursday night.

The launching of the Negro into the field of business is the only way he can hope to achieve economic independence, Mr. Bass said. The Negro has brains but lacks the courage necessary for success in business, the speaker declared. This fact is evident, Mr. Bass asserted, by the presence of only one Negro brokerage house.

Chelsea Reopens Under New Name

Employs 7 Negroes Out of 12; Community's Confidence Unshaken

(From our Staff Correspondent)
The former Chelsea Bank and Trust Company reopened on Thursday, June 4, under the new title of the Mercantile Bank and Trust Company, under the reorganization plan of the State Banking Department. Its entire directorate is new and consists of very influential business leaders of New York.

The 135th street branch of the Mercantile bank is again under the efficient directorship of Mr. Rapp, who was in charge of the Chelsea for over fourteen years.

Mr. Rapp has finally persuaded the new directorate to be sensitive to public opinion in Harlem, and the result is, that out of twelve members employed in the bank, seven are Negroes, four of them in important positions. Two are tellers, one a bookkeeper, the other a secretary. There's a floorman, a nightman and a messenger.

Mr. Rapp assured The Negro World that his future policy would be to give first consideration to Negro employees in the event more help were needed. He would have preferred, he said, to have an entire Negro personnel, but for the fact that the old accounts had to be handled by some of the older clerks.

According to the statement of Mr. Rapp, the people of Harlem have shown much confidence in the bank and its new management. Out of 8,000 accounts in the Harlem bank there were only 300 persons who wanted to withdraw their money from the bank. Only a few accounts were closed, but in the checking department.

Red Face Plans Globe Flight

Post, With Gatty, to Fly to New York for Take-Off

WASHINGTON.—Wiley Post, Indian aviator from Oklahoma, and Harold Gatty, aerial navigator, completed arrangements here today for passports over Europe and expect to get away from New York early next week on a flight against time around the world.

They will leave for New York in their speedy Lockheed monoplane tomorrow morning and, after final minute inspection and compass tests, will be ready to start on the first leg, to Harbor Grace, N. F., whenever Dr. James H. Kimball, of the Weather Bureau, gives the word.

Post said that he planned to be back at the starting point ten days from the time he takes off on the 16,000-mile flight. Severe tests under varying conditions, he added, had convinced him that the plane had the speed and mechanical performance, which, with Gatty's navigating skill, should take them round the globe in less than half the time herebefore required.

In particular, they are out to lower the mark set by the Graf Zeppelin. On this point Gatty said that they wanted "to take the record away from the balloons."

F. C. Hall, an Oklahoma oil operator, Post said, has privately financed the flight. Post has been employed by Hall for several years and is chiefly noted for his racing ability. Last year he won the California-Chicago air derby. He is 32 years old and married.

Mexico's Housewives to Support Own National Merchants, Report

Sheriffs Who Fought Mobs

Successfully Honored and Awarded Medals by Inter-Racial Commission

ATLANTA, Ga.—In recognition of notable courage and judgment in successfully resisting mobs during last year, the Commission on Interracial Cooperation today announced the award of handsome medals to two Texas sheriffs, W. W. Covington of Beaumont, sheriff of Jefferson County, and W. K. McLemore of Shamrock, former sheriff of Wheeler County. Formal presentations of the medals were made at public meetings at Beaumont and Shamrock yesterday, with prominent people making addresses. The Governor also sent messages commending and congratulating the officers.

The awards were passed upon by a commission composed of Ex-Governor Hugh M. Dorsey of Georgia, Mrs. J. H. McCoy of Athens, Alabama, Marshall Ballard, editor of the New Orleans Item, and George B. Dealey, editor of the Dallas News.

The award to Sheriff Covington commemorates events of June 25 and 26, 1930, when mobs stormed the Jefferson County jail and demanded the surrender of Rainey Williams, colored, charged with a series of serious crimes. The first mob, numbering 100 or more, arrived in automobiles shortly after midnight of the 25th, bringing rope, tar, and feathers. The sheriff had received news of their coming, however, and was ready for them, with a number of deputies stationed at the jail windows, prepared to shoot if necessary.

Defied Mob; Knocked Leader Down
The sheriff himself met the mob outside and pleaded with them to let the law take its course. The crowd rushed him; he grappled with them and discharged his pistol. They retired for the moment, but made a second rush and were repulsed with tear gas bombs. Meantime additional officers joined the sheriff and finally the mob grew discouraged and dispersed.

The next day another group, led by a sailor, appeared and demanded the prisoner. Advancing to meet them, Sheriff Covington gave the leader a punch in the jaw and felled him, whereupon the crowd dispersed in haste.

A Sheriff Who Meant Business

In the Wheeler County case a mob of three hundred gathered at Shamrock on July 12, 1930, seeking the life of Jesse Lee Washington, charged with murder. The expressed purpose of the mob was to lynch Washington and burn the Negro quarter of the town. Assigning several officers to protect the colored section, Sheriff McLemore sought out the mob leaders and reasoned with them. They were assured that any unlawful effort would be resisted with force and that somebody would certainly be killed. Yielding to the sheriff's appeal.

Mobs Can Be Tamed if Law Is Upheld by Its Protectors

By JULIAN HARRIS
ATLANTA, Ga.—It is good to be able to chronicle the fact that Georgia solved the lynching problem last week. Heretofore, this space has too often been used to describe the murder of prisoners, usually Negroes, by a mob of lawless Georgians. It would seem to be news that the custom of offering the keys of the jail to leaders of a mob is about to be outmoded. In short, lynching, as a by-product of hot, Nordic blood, is about to go the way of hat-doffing in elevators or surrendering one's seat in a street car to a woman.

Proved Their Mettle
It ought to be said, too, that Georgia's heretofore "Pinacolada" militia not only took along loaded guns when called out to protect a Negro prisoner in Elberton, but used them effectively when the mob attempted the usual plan of ignoring the representatives of law and order. Two men were wounded, the mob lost its appetite for gang-murder, several gasoline drums, which might have aided in a human sacrifice, were saved and the prisoners were moved safely as well as speedily to the jail in Atlanta. In short, the situation was one which caused George Fort Milton, chairman of the committee on the study of lynching in the South, to write an enthusiastic editorial of commendation captioned "Three Cheers for Georgia."

Minister Held Mob
Vigorous approval has been accorded the excellent work of Sheriff Seymour of Elberton County, the city police of Elberton, leading citizens, and particularly the Rev. Henry Brookshire, of whom more will be said later. The Atlanta Constitution, Model winner of the Pulitzer Gold Medal and for years a determined opponent of lynch law, praised the authorities and the National Guard for their courage. Denouncing lynching as "savagery, barbarism, reverting to the wild fury of the jungle," (Continued on Page Eight)

Action for Economic Justice

VII.—Business and Sentiment

It was in Ireland. The Cardinal was visiting the school, it was announced that he would pay a guinea to the smartest pupil in the class.

The boys were asked: Who was the greatest man in history?

All the gentle boys gave very learned answers, but the Cardinal would not give away the guinea. Then he put that question to Izzy, the Jewish lad in the school.

"St. Patrick" came the answer like a flash. And he got the guinea.

When the Cardinal went away beaming with satisfaction, his teacher came to him and said: "Say Izzy, don't you think Moses was greater than St. Patrick? Your father must have told you so."

"Yes, sir," said the lad. "I know Moses was the greatest man. But business is business."

And the secret of the success of the Jewish people lies in the fact that they do not mix sentiment with hard, cold, practical facts. But the Negro is different. He would put sentiment above everything else.

We have been told that a certain Negro grocer refused to sell milk to a lady because she almost looked white! And we have also heard of Negroes who would not work with or employ other Negroes because they are too black!

We also know that lots of businessmen wish secretly that the Negro World campaign for Race-owned and Race-supported business should fail because they have a few silly, unfounded prejudices against it. They refuse to advertise in it, they refuse to read it for FEAR that they MAY MAKE MORE MONEY FOR THEMSELVES BY ADVERTISING IN THE Negro World.

The whites whom the average Negro respects with almost religious awe would laugh at him when they find it out. And the Negro businessman DESERVES that SCOFFING.

'Colored' People Housewives Hold Form a League

West Indians Take Leading Part in Its Formation, Consolidation

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad.—The League of Colored Peoples met in London in last week to draw up their constitution. Forty-four foundation members have enrolled.

Trinidadians, as exclusively announced in the "Trinidad Guardian," have been active in the formation of this new organization. They include Mr. John Clarke, Mr. M. G. Sinnan, Dr. Patrick, Dr. A. H. McShane and Mr. and Mrs. Mahabir, Mr. O. Williams, Dr. Thomas and Mr. Oscar and Mr. Joseph Ribeiro and Miss Ribeiro.

Full membership is reserved for colored people and their wives and husbands. Sympathizers of European stock are invited to join as associate members.

Color Bar
The color bar question will be discussed at the next meeting to ascertain to what extent this operates in Britain.

An invitation has been received to send a delegate to the International Conference on African Children, at Geneva on June 21-25 under the presidency of Lord Noel Buxton.

Eight hundred organizations exist in Great Britain that work to improve the conditions of colored people and the relationship between them and the white races, according to an estimate quoted by Mr. Barbour James of British Guiana.

Housewives Hold Key to Solution

Of Negro's Economic Problem—If Women Lead Men Will Follow

By RALPH O. GOTHARD

"The hand that spends the money is the hand that rules the world" is a paraphrase of the old saying about the "hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules the world." Statistics show us that it is the same hand that rocks the cradle that spends 85 per cent of the money. It is obvious then, that it's the housewife, or I should say the housewives, who hold the key to the Negroes' economic problem in America, as elsewhere. It is they who, in the final analysis, are going to deliver us from economic slavery. Many men may as well admit it, we are going to be what the women will have us to be, in the future. Our fate is in their hands.

There are not less than 50,000 housewives in Harlem. All of these purchase food, clothing, shoes, etc., for the entire family, excepting father. Harlem housewives then become the purchasing agents for at least 200,000 people. It is these women whose buying power if organized, can elevate Harlem to unprecedented economic heights or by the same token, plunge us to the hopeless depths of economic despair.

They can decide tomorrow, or next week, that they are not going to spend their money with stores that will not employ their boys and girls, hereafter giving their support to Negro-owned enterprises, and every newspaper would carry big headlines, "NEGRO WOMEN DECIDE TO SUPPORT OWN STORES." Will not spend money with stores that refuse employment to their sons and daughters." Imagine if you can what this policy would do for Harlem in five years if the housewives decide to carry it out.

The "Sun," Tuesday, May 25, 1931, printed such a dispatch FROM MEXICO. These were MEXICAN HOUSEWIVES. They found themselves facing the same problem that we in America face, ACTION OR EXTINCTION. The headline reads: "WOMEN OF MEXICO WILL PATRONIZE OWN MERCHANTS." Declare that foreign peddlers hurt native trade—Organize to boycott alien sellers."

It is pretty generally recognized that the women of every race and clime hold the purse strings. Nations rise and fall on the strength of their buying power. Particularly is this true of Harlem. Negro women are segregated in a certain section where they can, at will, deliberately withdraw their support from any store or group of stores, and GIVE their support to members of their own (Continued on Page Eight)

Aliens Hurt Native Trade

Organize "The Front of Action League of Mexican Women"

BOYCOTT PEDDLERS

By TERESA MARTINEZ
(Reprinted from The N. Y. Sun)
MEXICO CITY, Mexico.

MEXICAN merchants have found the formidable competition that is being offered them by foreign street and house-to-house peddlers, "hole-in-the-wall" shopkeepers, installment plan vendors, and public market traders. Housewives of the national cities of the republic, have pledged their practical support to the nationalistic campaign that is now being waged throughout the country to deal exclusively with Mexican merchants and to buy, insofar as is possible, nothing but Mexican made merchandise. These patriotic ladies have formed an organization which is called "The Front of Action League of Mexican Women." The group has 3,000 members alone in the Federal District, which, like the District of Columbia, comprises the national capital and several large towns.

Pay No Taxes

The League resulted from the campaign against numerous small foreign concerns and individuals which are flourishing in Mexico and making difficult the plight of native manufacturers. Mexican merchants' organizations allege that most of their foreign competitors, who operate upon a small scale, are doing business unfairly, and charge that these people evade paying taxes, and are able to undersell native merchandisers because they employ compatriots who are content to work for starvation wages, and that most of the goods they sell are smuggled. The agitation has been chiefly directed against Arab, Syrian, Turkish, Russian, Polish and Jewish small merchants and peddlers. Various Syrian and Jewish trade associations in Mexico City have stoutly denied these allegations.

Prominent Mexican merchants who are moving spirits in the nationalistic campaign are enthusiastic in their praise of their housewife allies. They point out that practically all of these women are responsible for distributing the family's household funds, that the buying of much merchandise and other products is almost entirely in their hands. They count upon these ladies to prove a big factor in the winning of their war, and are confident that, as a result of the efforts of the League, there will be a big slump in business for small scale foreign merchandisers and a gratifying increase in trade for native merchants.

The League proposes to get into action by declaring a boycott against all foreigners who operate small shops, peddle, or solicit installment plan business, and whom it is felt constitute an unfair competition for Mexican traders. Many of these foreign vendors, it is charged by native merchants, entered Mexico in WILMINGTON, Del.—Few members of the race know that in this city there is a pharmaceutical house which can meet all of the requirements of the medical profession, and which is controlled by Negroes. The Fisher Laboratories, Inc., is such an institution. Under the direction of Leon Fisher, a graduate chemist, this laboratory is prepared to manufacture such chemicals and drugs as are used by the medical profession. Mr. Fisher did research work at the R. W. Hunt Laboratories and later took a course in bacteriology, medical and laboratory technique at Northwestern University, Chicago. He later did research work at Johns Hopkins, Baltimore, Md., and at the American University, Washington, D. C. In 1921 he finished his course in organic chemistry at the last named university.

We Ask You To Give Now—Today! For a Worthy Cause

Some institutions are too proud to appeal for financial help even if they are facing complete collapse. This attitude on their part is not always welcomed by the public, who would be willing to render assistance if they only knew of their plight. Therefore The Negro World is not going to withhold anything from its readers. Money is needed badly just at this time.

Are there fifteen Negro men or women that are interested in our work, who will contribute $100.00 each as a donation to The Negro World? There surely must be fifteen such readers out of our large number who would welcome such an opportunity to lend their financial aid, especially when there is such dire need for this help! If you cannot give $100.00, what can you give? Please do whatever you can and help us to continue the perpetuation of the ideals of the New Negro Thought!

Send whatever you can direct to the NECESSITY FUND OF THE NEGRO WORLD, 355 Lenox Avenue, New York City.

Allow me to thank you a thousand times in advance for whatever your consideration. ALL DONATIONS WILL APPEAR IN OUR PAPER EACH WEEK—THEREFORE LET YOUR NAME APPEAR IN THIS HONOR ROLL. Yours for the true spirit of co-operation and racial uplift, HAROLD G. SALTUS, Business Manager.

Lack Courtesy to Negro in Public Office, Plaintiff

Shall we not have the same intelligence and courtesy in charity work, as we have in other lines of business? One of the representatives of the Investigating Bureau of the above mentioned office called at 111 West 138th Street to interview a Miss Taylor who is in charge there, concerning the case of a Negro woman who had applied there for immediate help because of her destitute condition and because she had no one to depend upon. She was ill and unable to work regularly; her husband, a World War veteran is also ill and in a hospital. The information desired concerned a small copy of paper on which was written "Go to the Hall of Records." Mrs. Reeder claimed that Miss Taylor instructed her to go to the Hall of Records. She then in conversation with a lady, she was so abrupt in her manner and language that she was forced to remain there, instead of courteously assisting her. She then informed that everyone looked alike to her, and refused to give any information that would enable me to help this poor mother.

The mass meeting of division No. 237, South Philadelphia, was called to order by President S. B. Barber. After the ritualistic ceremony was performed, we were favored with an inspiring talk from Mr. J. Greene, who has always stood for "Africa for the Africans, those at Home and Those Abroad."

We Ask You To Give Now—Today! For a Worthy Cause

Some institutions are too proud to appeal for financial help even if they are facing complete collapse. This attitude on their part is not always welcomed by the public, who would be willing to render assistance if they only knew of their plight. Therefore The Negro World is not going to withhold anything from its readers. Money is needed badly just at this time.

Are there fifteen Negro men or women that are interested in our work, who will contribute $100.00 each as a donation to The Negro World? There surely must be fifteen such readers out of our large number who would welcome such an opportunity to lend their financial aid, especially when there is such dire need for this help! If you cannot give $100.00, what can you give? Please do whatever you can and help us to continue the perpetuation of the ideals of the New Negro Thought!

Send whatever you can direct to the NECESSITY FUND OF THE NEGRO WORLD, 355 Lenox Avenue, New York City.

Allow me to thank you a thousand times in advance for whatever your consideration. ALL DONATIONS WILL APPEAR IN OUR PAPER EACH WEEK—THEREFORE LET YOUR NAME APPEAR IN THIS HONOR ROLL. Yours for the true spirit of co-operation and racial uplift, HAROLD G. SALTUS, Business Manager.

IT CAN BE DONE

By Ralph O. Gohard
In a very brilliant article by Dr. Carter G. Woodson, Negro historian, on the "Miseducation of the Negro," we are reminded of the things which the Negro race in need of men and women with all of the mind that a liberal college education will develop, but without the false conceptions of life and its problems which the "miseducation of the Negro" so often gives. Negro college men must throw aside their coats and collars and do the ground work of Negro business.

Turkey Begins to Build a New Literature

As the magic wand of the republic government has gradually awakened many long dormant activities in Turkey, so it may soon be expected to do with the literature of the country. Present efforts are comparatively mediocre, poor attempts to imitate the Occident, but they are the forerunners of something better. The Near East has a picturesque and dramatic literary background, even with colorful legends and folklore, which up to now has been little appreciated.

Will Colored Races Rule The World

The turning point in Western Civilization
By J. JACKSON TILFORD
Wars and racial antipathies are the outgrowth of too much national development, a brand of selfishness and narrowness, engendered through their social, political and economic life. The world is rapidly approaching the passing of such a life. This new development will receive a great impetus from the colored races, through their characteristic tolerance, broad mindedness, and fellowship. Mankind will then have a better chance to realize the life of living happily, unhampered and unencumbered by imaginary racial differences, foolish loyalty, selfish patriotism, all of which are great hindrances to love, peace, and harmony in the world. They are really the worst enemies of the world.

Garveyism Will Bring New Hope To Negro Just as Spring Does

By CHARLES L. JAMES
President Garvey Division
When one considers the position of the Negro at this time when all the world around him represents an interesting phenomenon, as when we understand that the world in which we live has ceased to be that humanitarian institution that God has made, and has become progressive and aggressive. We look around us to find something to satisfy our mental longings for "freedom" freedom from mental slavery, political slavery, economic slavery and every other form of oppression.

Liberia's New President

ENTERPRISE, Ind., was the staff of The Negro World in relating to America the news of Liberia's elections nearly two weeks earlier than anywhere else in America. Even the State Department at Washington did not know about it until a few days ago.

The Negro World congratulates Mr. Edwin Barclay upon his election as president of Liberia for the next four years.

We are not apologizing for Mr. Barclay, but the action of the State Department, coming as it does under the regime of Mr. Hoover, seems to us to be very ironical. Was not Mr. Hoover, was not Mr. Mellon, the present Secretary of the Treasury, a member of the Cabinet of Mr. Harding under whom the Teapot Dome scandal was hatched and carried out? And still these gentlemen have been presumed to be innocent and even ignorant of that deal. Knowing this, why should Mr. Barclay assume such an impossible righteous attitude in the case of Mr. Barclay?

Handling the "Help"

Handling the "help" is not merely the problem of the big employer. In fact, it is not exclusively the problem of the employer. It is a problem, and a big problem, with everyone in business who expects to do more than sit in one spot at one task from morning to night.

Gary Pioneers Gather For Its 25th Birthday

Steel City Built on Sands Will Have 3-Day Celebration—Fifty Races in Parade.

GARY, Ind.—The Steel City of the Sand Dunes commemorated today its twenty-fifth birthday and the attainment of 100,000 population.

Early in 1906, the late Elbert H. Gary picked from the storm-scarred sand shores of Lake Michigan the site of the United States Steel Corporation's inland center. Once a Potawatomi village was there. This will be our metropolis, he predicted. "We'll build near the railroad junction of Chicago, where acres of land can be had for almost the asking, midway between the ore regions of the North and the coal lands of the South and East."

Hundreds of millions of dollars were dumped on the dunes. Dredges scooped out a harbor where waves had washed unmoored since glaciers formed the Great Lakes. The planners provided for a city forty-two miles square. Trees were planted where tumbleweeds had thrived—and today there are shady lawns. At the lake's edge, the steel plant arose. Miles of ingots crept from the mills to all parts of the world.

The band that built the Steel City gathered tonight at the Pioneer Society of Gary banquet. Hundreds of other pioneers came—men and women from all corners of the country, who made their stake in steel.

William P. Gleason, who supervised the building of the steel plant, presided. Beside him was Captain H. S. Norton, who as agent of the Gary Land Company, did more than any one else to develop the city. William A. Wirt, the Indiana school master, author of the Gary "Work-Study-Play" school system, also was there.

The celebration will continue three days. Tomorrow the steel plant will shut down and thousands will parade down Broadway. Fifty racial groups will participate.

Uphold Law and You Can Tame Worst Mob, Is Hint

The Constitution asserted that "every time the State's ministers of law and order repulse and defeat a mob the State rises higher in the scale of civilization and draws more of the respect and praise of civilized men."

Made Savage Attack

In the Elberton incident it was charged that a Negro assaulted a young white woman. Four suspects were arrested, but before the usual averaging mob developed a leader, Sheriff S. C. Seymour and Officer Johnson of Elberton headed for Athens in an automobile, taking the quartet. When the mob realized that it was about to lose a Roman holiday its representatives started in hot pursuit of the officers and their prisoners. One burst tired by the pursuers went through the officers' car but no one was wounded, and the outstanced ambassadors of assassination returned to Elberton.

Later in the day two other Negroes were captured near Elberton. One was said to have confessed to taking part in the abduction of the girl, but charged the other with having actually committed the crime. Members of the mob who had attempted to lynch four innocent Negroes entered the jail to get the two men captured later. It was then that the Rev. Mr. Brookshire, Baptist minister, made an appeal to his fellow Georgians to abandon their cowardly and lawless plan. Fortunately units of the National Guard arrived before the members of the mob came out of the hypnosis produced by the pastor's fine and fearless plea, for when the mob, no longer under the spell of the minister's eloquence, attempted to rush the jail two of its members were shot down and the discovery had been made that lynchings can be averted if the law is upheld.

partment, he claimed, substantial new accounts had been opened. Mr. Rapp was very glad and he looked thrilled to see the bank open. He expressed great satisfaction in seeing the destitute people getting financial relief. He pleaded for the cooperation and confidence of the community of Harlem in his bank and in his management.

There was a receiving committee of the following gentlemen: A. C. Denning, Fitzherbert Howell, John W. Walker, E. C. Waller, I. Schneiderman, I. Werden and Jack Klein, formed to inspire confidence in the new bank and its management. The members of the committee rendered a valuable service not only to the bank but the depositors themselves.

the guise of agriculturalists, then came to the cities and towns and strongly entrenched themselves as tradesmen in violation of the terms under which they were allowed to enter the republic. Nationalistic campaigners hasten to declare that their drive is not concerned with large and reputable foreign concerns which are operating in this country, but is concentrated upon small merchants whose tactics are allegedly objectionable.

Leaders Establish Headquarters

de Penaloza, a society leader, and is composed of housewives and girls who hope soon to undertake the responsibilities of running a household of all classes of society. Other officers of the league are Senorita Pineda Montalvo, publicity; Senora Ana de Martinez, treasurer; Senora Sara de Gutierrez, financial secretary, and Senorita Ester Albizure, corresponding secretary.

These militant ladies have established headquarters in Mexico City and delegates have been sent to all Mexican States to recruit members and to found branches in all the leading cities and towns of the country. The League proposes to wage an energetic fight upon "those elements who accepted Mexico's hospitality, then made this country an enemy camp by illicit means."

Red Indian Now Enters Race to Fly Round Globe

To Post by his work with Harold Bromley in attempts to fly over the Pacific.

As the flight had been entirely financed, the pair will not be bothered with advertising and other affiliations to obtain funds.

Both fliers have worked on the route and arrangements for more than a year. From Harbor Grace they plan to proceed to Berlin, making the 2,860 miles across the Atlantic in about eighteen hours. Thence the itinerary would take them to Moscow, Novo-Sibirsk and Yakutsk, Eastern Siberia.

Then comes the second ocean hop, the 1,900 miles over the Pacific to Nome, Alaska. From there they would fly to Edmonton, Alberta, Cleveland and New York.

A radio sending and receiving set, operating on a wave length of 35.5 meters and with the call letters KHRDW has been installed and tested in flight. Two aperiodic compasses, an artificial horizon and other navigating instruments complete the equipment.

segregated group, if it is finally decided it will be advantageous to do so.

Here and there, in widely separated sections, housewives' leagues are already being formed. Over 27 C. M. A. stores receive their support largely from housewives' leagues in their particular locality.

More independent leagues are needed. Fifty thousand women cannot join one unit. All can be affiliated with a common purpose. Any progressive woman can organize an independent housewives league, and I feel sure Mrs. Lucille Randolph, or Mrs. Allen of the local Harlem Housewives League, will gladly assist you in any way possible. There can be a league in every church, forum or large apartment house in Harlem.

Every week will be Race Loyalty Week in Harlem when the women make it so. They play the music, we dance. It is good that this is so, for the situation would be hopeless if we had to depend upon the men to do it. Thank God for the ladies!

peals and the determined attitude of his deputies, the mob dispersed. The medal which is awarded in such cases by the Commission on Interracial Cooperation was designed by one of America's leading artists and represents a heroic figure standing guard before the gates of justice. Encircling the medal is the legend "In Defense of Law and Civilization." To date this medal has been awarded to twelve sheriffs in various states who have shown exceptional coolness and judgment in averting threats of mob violence.

Negro Also a Southerner

NASHVILLE—In the South, the white man is the Southerner, the Negro—well, a Negro, writes Horace Mann Bond, instructor in Sociology at Fisk University, in an article, "A Negro Looks at His South," which appears in the June issue of Harpers' Magazine. In this article, Mr. Bond protests against this classification and presents for the first time for serious consideration a figure long obscured by the professional southerner—the southerner who is also a Negro. He writes:

"There are probably eight or nine million Negroes who are Southerners—using their phrase in the most catholic manner—people whose forebears were born in the South, whose lives have been lived there, whose hope of future security and happiness is intimately bound up with the fortunes of the section. These people are Southerners, and I am a Southerner—Customs, politics, society, all of the deeper and more extensive ramifications of culture bear the imprint of those of us, who being Southerners, are also Negroes."

In Memoriam

In memory of my beloved husband, Frederick G. David, who departed this life on Sunday, May 18, 1930. One lonely year since we were parted by death's relentless hand. I am struggling on though broken-hearted. I'll join you in that land, you left here in desolation, gone to join that happy throng. This is my only consolation. We will meet again, 'twill not be long. Done by a loving and devoted wife, Ernesta David.

Auto Invades Upstate House, Knocks a Sleeper Out of Bed

PLATTSBURG, N. Y.—An automobile went through the side of a house today and knocked a man out of bed. The suddenly aroused sleeper seized a shotgun and burst into the street, but did not shoot. The police had trouble convincing him it was an accident.

The car, driven by Miss Marie Aubin, 21, of Plattsburg, was in a collision at a street intersection, then swerved suddenly through the two-story frame dwelling at one corner, fetching up against the bed of the slumbering Walter Rizzi.

Leopold le Febvre, driver of the second car, a soldier at Plattsburg barracks, was arrested on a charge of driving without a license. A bag containing bottles of alleged home brew was found in his car.

Schumann-Heink Scores Prejudice

SACRAMENTO, Cal.—When war mothers protested the appearance of Negro and foreign-blood children in a recital marking the dedication of a memorial auditorium here, they were soundly rebuked by Mme. Ernestine Schumann-Heink, white, the world-famed singer, last Friday night.

The white woman thought the "melting pot" of Chinese, Japanese, Negro, Portuguese, and Italian children on the stage were not representative of the "American race."

The singer turned her back upon her audient audience and facing the bank of black, yellow, and white faces, crooned a mother's lullaby specially for them. Then the children sang "The Star Spangled Banner" with her.

When Mme. Schumann-Heink finished her singing and after the applause died down she stepped to the footlights and declared vigorously: "As a war mother I know what it means to suffer. I gave five sons, four to Uncle Sam and one to his old fatherland."

"It is up to the war mothers to teach their children the love of law—and not make a difference between black, or yellow, or brown, or white skins."

Castles Jr., Captain Walter Lockhart, Major Samuel Shethar, Colonel William J. Schiefelin, Colonel William A. Taylor, Wolcott P. Robbins, Robert S. German Surgeon Cuts Heart, Then Stitches

BERLIN.—A dramatic operation in which the heart of a 22-year-old girl was cut open by mistake and had to be stitched immediately in order to save the life of the patient was described at a session of the German Surgical Society by Professor Sauerbruch, a noted Berlin surgeon.

The Professor presented the recovered girl, who did not show any effects of the stitched heart.

The girl developed heart trouble after influenza, and a Roentgen-ray picture showed a large swelling within the right side of her chest. A short time before Professor Sauerbruch had found a similar swelling in a man's chest, which proved to be a blood blister, and he opened and eliminated it successfully.

Accordingly Professor Sauerbruch punctured with a needle a blister the size of two fists in the girl's chest. When nothing happened he punctured again, with the result that a thick bloodstream poured out, widening the punctured hole rapidly.

The Professor, trying to stop the blood, found his finger within the right ventricle of the heart, where he felt the blood "virtually boil and bubble."

He immediately made his assistant close the wound with a few stitches around the finger, which he kept inside the heart. Then he gradually withdrew the finger while the assistant tightened the stitches until the hole was completely shut.

What first was taken to be a blister had proved to be a blood pouch of the heart itself, which thus was successfully eliminated.

Professor Sauerbruch said if he had known what the apparent blister really was he would never have dared to operate.

"The diagnosis was wrong and the operation successful," he concluded smilingly.

Soviet to Tax Incomes For Building Program

The levy will be collected in June, July and August. All income of more than 75 rubles a month (about $37.50) will be taxed from 12 to 40 rubles. Incomes above 250 rubles will pay from 30 to 135. Incomes above 300 rubles a month will be taxed from 12 to 60 per cent.

Haiti Arrests 3 Editors, Foes of Occupation

PORT-AU-PRINCE, Haiti.—Three editors of the newspaper "La Reaction" were arrested today for "exciting the people to armed revolt." Ernest Sabat, Julio Audain and Charles Rubin were detained by police after the newspaper had published an article charging President Stenio Vincent with "supporting without conscience the American occupation" of Haiti.

The Chamber is scheduled to vote Wednesday on the treaty between Haiti and the United States providing for American officials to head certain departments of the government. The President won a victory in the Chamber when a motion for revision of the constitution to eliminate election of Deputies next year was defeated.

Rangoon Editor Sees India as Market for The United States

W. J. Grant, editor of "The Rangoon Times," who is in New York on a tour of the world, said yesterday at the Bristol that "once the present political problems are settled, India will absorb Western manufactured goods as a sponge absorbs water."

Since fully 90 per cent of the 300,000,000 Indians make their living on the land, Mr. Grant declared that "when the production of rice, jute, maize and the like is put on a modern basis the demand for machinery will be enormous. Roads and additional rail construction are urgently needed at present. Any advance in the agrarian industry demands a corresponding advance in communications. This would mean a strong market in India for motor cars, road construction appliances and railway equipment."

Once politics is "out of the way," Mr. Grant said, "I am certain that it will tax the capacity of the West to supply the requirements of the East." He said that both India and Burma will continue agrarian for at least another century and that even now both countries were "full to overflowing with raw materials." He called Gandhi the greatest man in India since Akbar the Great.

Mr. Grant, who is author of the novel "Fora Ingram," is studying world economic conditions. He has already visited Ceylon, Australia, New Zealand, Fiji and Canada. The Rocky Mountains, "for boldness and almost terrifying sharpness" he thought superior to the Himalayas or the Alps.
