Revolution of World Thought Evident

Negroes, Like All Race Groups, Demand Freedom, Self-Determination

U. N. I. A. (Aug., 1929) Proposes Friendly Cooperation With All Honest Movements Seeking to Solve the Race Problem

Brothermen of the Negro Race, Greeting:
There is now a world revival of thought and action which is causing peoples everywhere to bestir themselves towards their own security, through which we hear the cry of Ireland for the Irish, Palestine for the Jew, Egypt for the Egyptian, Asia for the Asiatic, and thus we Negroes raise the cry of Africa for the Africans, those at home and those abroad.

Some people are not disposed to give us credit for having feelings, passions, ambitions and desires like other races; they are satisfied to relegate us to the black-heap of human aspirations; but this is a mistake. The Almighty Creator made us men, not unlike others, but in His own image; hence, as a race, we feel that we, too, are entitled to the rights that are common to humanity.

Cry for Liberty
The cry and desire for liberty is justifiable, and is made holy everywhere. It is sacred and holy to the Anglo-Saxon, Teuton and Latin; to the Anglo-American it precedes that of all religions, and now come the Irish, the Jew, the Egyptian, the Hindoo, and, last but not least, the Negro, clamoring for their share as well as their right to be free.

All men should be free—free to work out their own salvation. Free to create their own destinies. Free to create their own destinies. Free to create their own destinies. Free to create their own destinies.

Devotees of Garvey Plan Mass Meeting

Phila. Rally Designed to Reunite Militant Negro's Followers

By JOSEPH H. RAINEY
Fifteen years ago a daring, courageous, militant Negro from the West Indies—Marcus Garvey—came to Harlem, mecca of Negro culture, and with adroit swiftness swept the Negro masses of America off their feet with his slogan, "Africa for the Africans, those at home and those abroad." From a soapbox at Lenox and 85th avenue, he thundered to the new Negro, born of the war hysteria. He indicted the old Negro for his shortcomings and his fear of white masters. He dismissed the intelligentsia of his race as spineless parasites. He engaged in a bitter and fatal controversy with Dr. W. E. B. DuBois. He attacked the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. He condemned the Negro press and the Negro church in one grand sweep of rhetorical impudence.

The masses flocked to his standard. He founded the Negro World, which belted the globe in 12 months. Through this organ he founded the Universal Negro Improvement Association and African Communities' League, and in three years had 2,500 branches everywhere. Garveyism became the philosophy of the Negro masses. He was called a seer.

Master of Propaganda
Marcus Garvey was a master propagandist. He explored the whole realm of mass psychology and practiced all the wiles of his trademark. He possessed the gift of oratory. He was young, courageous, militant. He organized the

Divisions in New Jersey, Maryland, Delaware and Pennsylvania Will Send Representatives—U. N. I. A. to Hold Meeting Easter Sunday

Propose New State for Africa

Pasadena Negroes Plan 'Trek' to Africa; Debt Settlement Part of Idea

PASADENA, Calif.—One proposed way to solve the European debt problem is for the debtor nations to give up territory they now own in Africa, and for this territory to become in the future a great Negro state, populated largely by colored people from the United States.

At least, that is the idea born of a group meeting held last night in Pasadena, which resulted in formation of a parent chapter, decision to form similar chapters "throughout the country" and election of officers. Elbert Woolley is the first president of the organization which is at present unnamed; James M. Jones is named secretary, and Samuel W. Guinn, treasurer. Meetings, it is announced, are to be held every Thursday evening at 917 North Fair Oaks avenue.

Seek Large Support
The United States could well afford to put several hundred million dollars into this movement, as the demand for money to build schools, hospitals, public buildings, as well as houses together with pipe and wire for water, light, gas and telephone systems would be spent within the United States and could be paid back to the government through the payment of Fifteen branches of the organization of the Universal Negro Improvement Association of which Marcus Garvey is the founder and President General are sending representatives to a special meeting to be held here Easter Sunday under the auspices of the local branch No. 121, of which S. A. Haynes is president. The meeting is called jointly by M. L. T. DeMena and Mr. Haynes, who are ranking executives of the organization in America, for the purpose of ascertaining the attitude of the branches in reviving The Negro World, official U. N. I. A. organ, and to assure greater solidarity and communion between them.

The meeting will be held at Liberty Hall, 2108 Columbia avenue, at 2 P. M., Easter Sunday, preceded by religious exercises at 10 A. M. Delegates are coming from the New England States, New York, New Jersey, Maryland, Delaware and Pennsylvania.

Stage Meetings Protesting Alabama Lynch Verdict

Speakers From Every Walk of Life Decry Alabama's Shame

NEW YORK—Seething with bitter indignation against the lynch-verdict brought in at Decatur, Ala., against Heywood Patterson, one of the nine framed Scottsboro boys, Negro and white workers of this city are preparing to mass in Union Square by the tens of thousands this Wednesday, 8 p. m., to protest the vicious verdict and to demand the freedom of the framed Negro boys.

The emergency call for this demonstration issued Sunday by the N. Y. District International Labor Defense has already received wide response in the form of phone calls and pledges from workers organizations to participate. Speakers will include Joseph R. Brodsky, chief counsel of the International Labor Defense who will reach New York from Decatur, Ala., to address the demonstration in Union Square, Dr. Joshua Kunitz, chairman of the National Committee for the Defense of Political Prisoners; John Haynes Holmes, Communist Party; James W. Ford, Trade Union Unity League; Richard B. Moore, International Labor Defense; J. B. Patterson, Young Communist League; Donald Henderson, formerly received wide response in the form

U. N. I. A. Leader Issues Call to His Followers

"We Want Men to Rebuild Africa," He Says— "Will You Be One?"—Negroes Must Sacrifice and Build Like Other Races for the Glory of Their Homeland

WHOEVER SERVES HIS COUNTRY WELL, HAS NO NEED OF ANCISTORS.—YETTAIRE.

The highest purpose to which we can dedicate our lives is that of service—service to man, service to God, service to country. If we render such a service, we need not worry if any one should ask who our fathers were, because the answer would be that "we were fathers of ourselves."

The problem of leadership and the problem of cooperation are too closely interwoven to be divided. If we render such a service, we need not worry if any one should ask who our fathers were, because the answer would be that "we were fathers of ourselves."

The Negro and His Burden

Large numbers of the people of African descent, who are now living in America and the West Indies, regard the idea of being called Negroes.

What I would like to know is: What harm does it do to be called a Negro? I will admit that being a Negro does not add a penny to your pocketbook; but I fail to see where it makes you any poorer. If we believe that it impoverishes us, then it's nobody's fault but ours. The logical thing for us to do is to divorce ourselves from that inferior complex, which in reality is a larger and heavier burden to us than being called Negroes.

Look at the Jews. Haven't they been rebuked, enslaved and persecuted? Did that stop them from making progress? It did not. In the economic world, look of cooperative has been the besting sin of the race's progress. We have built a pitiable few race houses of national importance. Such a small number has been due to a lack of racial cooperation. Race merchants fall to measure up to a single standard of quality and service; and Negroes refuse to be treated as second-class citizens.—Atlanta Independent.

Liberia

Trading or Commerce One of the Three Great Pillars of Economic Society.

By C. L. SIMPSON, Esquire

Liberia's natural wealth, or its products, are mainly, coffee, palm-kernel, piassava, cocoa, calabar beans, palm oil, ivory and rubber, and strange as it may sound, but as heretofore mentioned our present situation is that all trade or commerce is practically in the hands of foreign merchants, and as such our raw materials are secured at very paltry sums from the farmers, because there are no organized local control over trade conditions by a group of our own people.

These raw products on being obtained by foreign mercantile houses, for a little or nothing under any suggested pretense to the Liberian traders or farmers, in exchange for merchandise, are in turn exported overseas, to meet the demands of the foreign markets in manufacturing of articles in the preparation of certain chemicals and other indispensable purposes of the world.

Let us however, have every reason to believe that future commonwealth life will not exclusively be managed by foreign business houses, in Liberia, but that the Liberians will ere long undertake to capture a portion of it. When we have done this, then shall our minds instinctively revert to the days of Henry Cooper & Son, Dickerson & Brown, Sherman & Demory, Neal & Williams, Cruise Bros., Ruston Bros and others whose names do not appear in this article.—The Liberia Times.

"Duty's Holiest Call Obey!"

By JOHN G. WHITTIER

What is it that the crowd regards they love with hate, they truth will lie?

Yet, do thy work; it shall succeed in thine, or in another's day; And, if denied the victor's meed, Thou shalt not lack the toiler's pay.

Faith shares the Future's promise, Love's self-offering is a triumph won, And each good thought or action moves The dark world nearer to the sun.

Then faint not, falter not, and plead Thy weakness; Truth itself is strong: The lion's strength, the eagle's speed, Are not alone vouchsafed to wrong.

By PAUL LAURENCE DUNBAR

There are no beaten paths to glory's height, There are no routes to compass greatness known; Each for himself must carve a path alone, And press his own way forward in the fight.

Smooth is the way to ease and soft the road to sloth; For him who craves the flower of life full-blown, Must struggle up in all his armor bright.

What though the burden bear him sorely down, And crush to dust the moustache of his pride; Oh, then, with strong heart, let him still abide, For rugged is the pathway to heaven.

Not may he hope to gain the envied crown, Till he has thrust the looming rocks aside.

Make This Glad Eastertide a Period of Real Resurrection for Our Organization

International Organizer, Battling With Illness Caused by a Motor Accident, Sends a Rousing Call to Followers of Marcus Garvey and the U. N. I. A. (August 1929 of the World)

Re-Appearance of The Negro World to Herald a Brighter, Better Day Says U. N. I. A. Joan of Arc

Ever since the 6th of February, Madame M. L. T. DeMena, International Organizer of the U. N. I. A. (August, 1929 of the World) and Officer in Charge of the American Field has been confined to her residence at 312 West 121st Street, New York City, as a result of injuries suffered through a motor accident, which occurred near Jersey City, N. J., during the early hours of the morning, when she was returning from a trip to Philadelphia, for the purpose of installing the officers of the North Philadelphia division, as well as of the Camden, N. J. division.

The road was wet and slippery from the heavy blanket of snow which had fallen during the Saturday and Sunday before and, despite the driver's care and caution, the car in which they were riding skidded and collided with the abutments of the bridge, on which they were travelling.

The other in the party received more or less minor injuries, but Madame DeMena was thrown from her seat by the impact and received in addition to a cut on her right knee a blow on her head as well as internal injuries at the result of a blow in the region of the ribs by a portion of the mechanism of the car, which was practically demolished and had to be abandoned.

The party had to continue on foot for some distance until they came to a garage where another car was secured to bring them to the work.

Despite all this handicap under which she has suffered, Madame DeMena never let the flame of activity burn low; nor did she ever for one minute relax from the purpose of giving back to the people of the organization free, clear and untrammelled the organ to which they had grown accustomed, and for which they had looked weekly, to these many years. And, as if to add her in the light for the resurrection of that fearless champion of Negro rights, The Negro World, the people of the various divisions deluged her with letters, trying her on to the task, pledging their aid and support, so that The Negro World may again continue to carry its message of hope and encouragement, and inspiration, and uplift, and constructive activity to the Negro peoples of the world.

As a result of this untold effort, by one who could easily have excused herself because of her illness and suffering, we have the present issue of The Negro World, heralding the dawn of a new day for the Negro, and the U. N. I. A. (August, 1929, of the World), heralding the dawn of a new day for the freedom of the race. Her Easter message to the members of the organization and to the people of the Negro race follows:

"Follow Members of the great and noble organization known as the Universal Negro Improvement Association (August, 1929, of the World) and members of the Negro race in general.

My heart goes out to you in love and sympathy with this Glad Eastertide, bringing with it all the remembrance of the sacrifices and sufferings of the heroes of both church and state, through so many hundred years of the history of the world, to wish you all a "Happy Easter-tide."

It is with a feeling of pride that I look back upon the activities and efforts of the past, and to note that the seed has indeed fallen upon fertile soil, for the members of the organization are now numbered by the millions the world over. The period of depression through which we have passed, and out of which we now seem to be emerging, has also convinced thousands of others who refused to follow Garvey, that our cause was right, and that if it expects salvation in this world or on earth, I am counting upon you. Therefore, do it NOW!

And now, standing before the God of all creation, I am commending you and yours to His tender care and keeping; praying that you be endued with strength, with courage, and with power from on high, to make our dreams come true.

Yours in the cause Africa, M. L. T. DEMENA.

Dear Co-Worker: As you know how it is with Hartford Division, when it rains it is hard to get around, what it shows it is about the same, and we had plenty of it. So the members did not turn out. When I call at some of their homes they promise to come out Sunday, and help. However, all I could raise was $3.25, for which you will find money order enclosed.

from you every taint of any weakness that shall make you ever dread to meet any of the tests of time. Root out of your lives all that can make you falter, and weaker, or turn aside when the fight grows hottest. You have embarked upon the greatest adventure in which men were ever engaged since the dawn of history, and you have sought to be ashamed of it. Henceforth, therefore, let us stand shoulder to shoulder, and following the teachings of our great and noble leader, Marcus Garvey, march on till victory shall tame our songs, fight on till the day dawns, when we shall unshrink our invincible legions upon the glorious shores of our waiting fatherland, Africa, and win the greatest battle of all time, against tyranny, oppression, alien greed and injustice, which history shall ever record.

Give of the best that is in you to the good and glory of your race. Cease not to fight till a wreath of victory shall fall across your pathway, and the shouts of the ransomed millions of Bibles' sons and daughters greet the rhythmic tread of her unconquered legions, as they debate on her plains, victory in the fray.

Make this glad Easter-tide the most glorious and the most significant Easter that the world has ever known. Make it count for so much in your life that generations to come shall rise up to call you "Blessed." This is my fond wish and hope.

Rally to the call! Support your organization and its illustrious founder and leader, the Hon. Marcus Garvey. Support The Negro World. Help it to grow bigger, brighter, and better as the days go by. Make it a medium of aspiration and success which it should be. Help to make it the greatest weekly newspaper of our race on earth. These things we can do. I am counting upon you. Therefore, do it NOW!

And now, standing before the God of all creation, I am commending you and yours to His tender care and keeping; praying that you be endued with strength, with courage, and with power from on high, to make our dreams come true.

Yours in the cause Africa, M. L. T. DEMENA.

Hon. Madam: Yours of the 17th came safe to our hands yesterday at 10 A.M. We cannot herein express our joyous emotions, on learning of the approximate appearance of our long expected salvation, "The Negro World." Therefore, we are taking the pleasure to convey to you our warm congratulations on your new victory. We, over this side of the water, are impressed in the belief that the great Jehovah is answering our supplications, and that He will ever help us to climb over the hills of opposition, and at last we shall land triumphantly on the promised land.

Prompt attention has been given to your instructions, but our only regret is that the depression has not taken the pleasure to convey to us the pleasure to convey to you our warm congratulations on your new victory. We, over this side of the water, are impressed in the belief that the great Jehovah is answering our supplications, and that He will ever help us to climb over the hills of opposition, and at last we shall land triumphantly on the promised land.

"The Call of Africa"

WRITING in the magazine section of The New York Times, on Sunday, February 7, 1932, a writer whose article was presumably written from Capetown, South Africa, and who signs, "L.G.G.", dilates on "Boy! The Call of Africa!"

The gist of the story is told in the headlines, which say:—"At the word of command a servant is ready to do the white man's bidding." In reply to this the sons of Africa at home and abroad, are saying:—"Their's to glory now; their's the day of vaunting and of boasting." There is a day coming however, when the sleeping giant will awaken, and the shouting cowards who have despoiled, and are ravishing and despoiling the land of our fathers, will have to gather log and baggage, and run for their lives. That day will not be as long in coming as they expect.

It is the duty of every red-blooded Negro, anywhere over creation, to take up the cudgel, thrown down to us by this vaunting loafer, and work with might and main, in preparing for the time when the real call of Africa will be sounded. Then it will be a call to arms; a call to meet the test of the alien robber and invader; and show him some of the mettle of which our souls are made.

Africa is demanding that Negroes everywhere rally to the call. Africa demands that her sons and daughters take this coward's vaunt as a challenge to the best that is within us; and get ready for the final test which is coming soon; too soon for some of the parasitic nations which are today sucking her life-blood. But it will not come too soon for us.

Negroes, awake! The time is at hand. Fate has struck with a decisive stroke. The chords must ring into the utmost recesses of our souls, and find an answering echo. Forward to meet them on all the fields of freedom. Forward to meet them on the gory fields of freedom. Africa calls, fellow-Negroes! We must be ready for the fray. Let us rise up and build this race along every line of human endeavor. Then when mother Africa issues the final cry, humanity will shudder at the call.

"Make Harlem Greater"

Heavy responsibilities rest upon the Negro residents of Harlem, challenging every fibre of their manhood, and demanding action along right lines.

We are faced with many and grave problems. We must be equal to their solution. We must stamp our imprint here, in this "City within a city," in a way that will endure for all time. We must build here for the eternities.

We are not unmindful of the fact that others are planning their designing schemes, to uproot us from the hold we have taken here. If we are men however, worthy of our great and noble ancestors, we despite the chicaneries of all the schemers, will build here in Harlem, a new and grander civilization that the world has ever known.

Our minds are conscious of the fact that our race is today dreaming in terms of empire. We realize also that the building here of a mighty and unforgettable monument to the process, the skill, the genius, the courage, the foresight, the ambition, and the dogged pertinacity of the Negro, will be but a part of our vaster dream of empire, without which our greater dream could never be complete.

"MAKE HARLEM GREATER!" Inspired, intrepid hearts and undaunted souls can catch the vibrations coming from the very center of Infinity, demanding that we rise to the occasion, and prove ourselves worthy of the respect and admiration of the world.

"MAKE HARLEM GREATER!" This slogan should be adopted by every upstanding, manly, honest, earnest, courageous Negro man and woman in this community. Every Negro whose head is sheltered under a roof in Harlem ought to be infected with the enthusiasm which must be generated to make this dream come true. Every one of us ought to be pre-garnished with an irrevocable will to do our part to carry out this great objective. We should each be charged with a divine consciousness of the duty which lies before us, and go out to make it a living, pulsating reality.

The Negro World

Since the enforced absence of the Hon. Marcus Garvey, founder and president-general of the Universal Negro Improvement Association (August, 1929) of the World, from the United States, thousands of members of the organization who have labored unselfishly, devotedly, sacrificially for its development in their respective communities; hundreds more who have severed family ties and bonds of friendship, rather than betray their allegiance to the great ideal embodied in the motto: "One God! One Aim! One Destiny!" have been driven from active participation in their respective divisions, by the treachery, disloyalty and down-right dishonesty of executives delegated by Mr. Garvey to carry on in his absence; and by divisional officers using Mr. Garvey's name and the organization's name as a stepping stone to personal fortunes and conversion of the organization's branches into self-serving agencies through which they suck the blood of the ignorant and superstitious.

Our organization has disintegrated into a vicious network of private clubs and societies, where the principles of the movement have been subordinated to new "isms," creeds, cults and mysticism. Former Garveyites are now enrolled in the Moorish-American Society; in various African movements, most of them founded by ex-Garveyites themselves, who had stiched the constitution of the U. N. I. A. to foot the people; in new organizations claiming to be associated with Garveyism. Former Garveyites set in Father Wilson Bishop Grace and others the reincarnation of Marcus Garvey.

We lost these members because the one organ through which they were kept informed of Mr. Garvey's activities on behalf of the race, the Negro World, through which the news and activities of U. N. I. A. branches were broadcast weekly to the four corners of the world, went out of existence through chicanery and selfishness of those guiding its course.

Marcus Garvey is still the leader of the Negro peoples of the world, by their free and untrammelled franchise exercised in the International convention in New York City August, 1929. The U. N. I. A., August, 1929, is still the voice of the 400,000,000 Negroes of the world. And the Negroes today, educated and uneducated, rich and poor, foreign and native, understand Garveyism better than they did when they mated Garvey to the cross, and betrayed him to Pilate. The prophecies of Garveyism are now realities.

America and the world needs Garvey and the U. N. I. A., August, 1929, of the World. The first step to recuperate lost ground lies in reconstituting the Negro World. This is the only medium through which we can restore the confidence of those lost in the wilderness of chaos and confusion.

Thanks to her vision and sense of duty, Madame M. L. T. Dolena, the officer in charge of the American field, has bought in, under the hammer of the auctioneer, all the titles and properties of The Negro World, and is holding it in trust for Mr. Garvey and the organization. To put the paper back on the market of world thought and racial militancy, those still imbued with the sacred spirit of the Negro World must express their wishes as to its future place in Negro life and culture. The Negro World created the Black Star Line, the Black Star Line made the U. N. I. A., the U. N. I. A. made Marcus Garvey the leader here. When The Negro World was edited by the late T. Thomas Fortune, John E. Bruce and others, it was an outstanding journal. Under the editorial whip of the scholarly William H. Ferris and the dynamic thrusts of Marcus Garvey himself, The Negro World was the accepted voice of the awakened race. It gained distinction also under the editorship of that great Egyptian author and historian, Duse Mohamed, and of R. T. Brown, who inculcated its editorial and news pages with the fire and zeal of Garveyism as no other of his predecessors had done.

In the zenith of its greatness The Negro World graced the embassy of every important nation in the capitals of the world. It was read diligently by the British, French and Italian Foreign Offices. It was digested by leading philosophers, historians, statesmen and thinkers of the world.

The Negro World revolutionized world opinion about the Negro, as well as Negro journalism. Its importance in the life of the Negro is fixed. The white man fears its influence on the minds of millions of oppressed Negroes everywhere. The Negro World is the light-house of the race. If you want its light to shine on you, get in touch with Madame Dolena at once, at 312 West 121st street, New York City. If you are a Garveyite out of the fold, return to the field of battle, drive out the charlatans who have converted your division into a den of usurpers, and rededicate yourself to the leadership of the Hon. Marcus Garvey and the program inaugurated in August, 1929.

The Negro World alone can redeem us from our present plight. Once resurrected, we shall hear again the clarion voice of the Hon. Marcus Garvey weakly; and through his voice solidarity, the broken links of Garveyism. Come comrades, let us rescue the organization from evil hands and restore it to Garvey and Garveyism!

"The Test"

By R. T. BROWN

If you can stand when others fall; If you can drink life's cup of gall; If you can face what others shrink from;

If you can smile amid the storm; If you can sing while others mourn; You're on the way to Victory's crown.

If you can fight when others fall; If you can weather every gale; If you can trust when others pine; If you can cheer when others grieve; If you can meet life's greatest trials; If you can truth despite dangers; If you can trust till the danger's past; You'll reach the Victory land at last.

Negro solidarity must express their wishes as to its future place in Negro life and culture. The Negro World created the Black Star Line, the Black Star Line made the U. N. I. A., the U. N. I. A. made Marcus Garvey the leader here. When The Negro World was edited by the late T. Thomas Fortune, John E. Bruce and others, it was an outstanding journal. From our distinct racial group idealism we feel that no black man is good enough to govern the white man, and no white man good enough to rule the black man; and so of all races and peoples. No one feels that the other, alien in race, is good enough to govern the white man, and no white man good enough to rule the black man; and so of all races and peoples. No one feels that the other, alien in race, is good enough to govern the white man, and no white man good enough to rule the black man; and so of all races and peoples.

Out of slavery we have come with our tears and sorrow, and we now lay them at the feet of American white civilization. We cry to the considerate white people for help, because in their midst we can scarce help ourselves. We are strangers in a strange land. We cannot sing, we cannot play our own harps, for our hearts are sad. We are sad because of the tears of our mothers and the cry of our fathers. Have you not heard the plaintive wail? It is your father and my father burning at stake; but, thank God, there is a larger humanity growing among the good and considerate white people of this country, and they are going to help. They will help us to find and know ourselves. They will help us to recover our souls.

As children of captivity we look forward to a new day and a new yet ever old, land of our fathers, the land of refuge, the land of the Prophets, the land of the Saints, and the land of God's crowning glory. We shall gather together our children, our treasures and our loved ones, and as the children of Israel, by the command of God, face the promised land, so in time we shall also stretch forth our hands and bless our country.

Good and dear America that has succeeded us for three hundred years knows our story. We have watered her vegetation with our tears for two hundred and fifty years. We have built her cities and laid the foundation of her imperialism with the mortar of our blood and bones for three centuries, and now we cry to her for help. Help us, America, as we have helped her. We helped you in the Revolutionary War. We helped you in the Civil War, and, although Lincoln helped us, we were not paid. We helped you in the Spanish-American War. We died nobly and courageously in Mexico, and did not we leave behind us on the stained battle-fields of France and Flanders our rich blood to mark the poppies bloom, and to bring back to you the glory of the flag that never touched the dust? We have no regrets in service to America for three hundred years, but we pray that America will help us for another fifty, until we have solved the troublesome problem that now confronts us. We know and realize that two ambitious and competitive races cannot live permanently side by side, without friction and trouble, and it is for that that the white race wants a white America and the black race wants and demands a black Africa.

Let white America help us for fifty years honestly as we have helped her for three hundred years, and before the expiration of many decades there shall be no more race problem. Help us to gradually go home, America. Help us as you have helped the Jews, Help us as you have helped the Irish, Help us as you have helped the Poles, Russians, Germans, and Armenians.

The Universal Negro Improvement Association represents the hopes and aspirations of the awakened Negro. Our desire is for a place in the world; not to disturb the tranquility of other men, but to lay down our burden and rest our weary backs and feet by the banks of the Niger, and sing our songs and chant our hymns to the God of Ethiopia. Yes, we want rest from the toil of centuries, rest of political freedom, rest of economic and industrial liberty, rest of social equality, rest of a nursing, rest from lynching and burning, rest from discrimination of all kinds.

Back to Africa. The thoughtful and industrious of our race want to go back to Africa, because we realize it will be our only hope of permanent settlement. We cannot all go in a day or year, ten or twenty, it will take time under the rule of modern economics to entirely or largely depopulate a country of people who have been here for centuries, but we feel that, with proper help for fifty years, the problem can be solved. We do not want all the Negroes in Africa. Some are no good here, and naturally will be no good there. The no-good Negroes will naturally pass away in fifty years, and yield his place to the progressive Negro who wants a society and country of his own.

Negroes are divided into two groups, the industrious and adventurous, and the lazy and dependent. The industrious and adventurous believe that whatsoever others have done it can do. The Universal Negro Improvement Association belongs to this group, and so you find us working, six million strong, to the goal of an independent nationality. Who will not help? Only the men and despicable "who never to himself shall aid, this is my own native land." Africa is the legitimate, moral and righteous home of all Negroes, and now, that the time is coming for all to assemble under their own vine and fig tree we feel it our duty to arouse every Negro to a consciousness of himself.

Respecting Each Other. White and black will learn to respect each other when they cease to be active competitors in the same countries for the same things in politics and society. Let them have countries of their own, wherein to aspire and climb without rancor. The races can be friendly and helpful to each other, but the laws of nature separate us to the extreme of each and every thing.

Own Atmosphere. We want an atmosphere all our own. We would like to govern our own race, and not be governed by the white man. We feel that we should be free to govern our own race, and not be governed by the white man. We feel that we should be free to govern our own race, and not be governed by the white man.

Our Success Column

A Definite Aim

By R. T. BROWN

Whatever may be your choice in life, if you are to reach an eminent success you must have a definite aim.

This chief aim must transcend all other things in your desires, and your life. It must be an overmastering desire (just, and noble of course) that must rise above all other aims, and urge you unceasingly on, till you have arrived. You will have to burn this desire, this definite chief aim into your inner consciousness, in an indelible manner. It must dominate your waking and your sleeping thoughts. It must hunt your vision. It must rouse your soul from lethargy and slumber, and push you onward, onward, onward, till you have reached your goal.

Decide today, what you want to be; what you want most to do in life. Make that decision your ideal. Dare to do the right as you see it. Live it. Live it. Live it. Give it play in your life. Let it dominate every other passion, every other desire.

Do you desire to teach mankind new ways in art, in science, in literature, in commerce, or industry? You can do it. Make your decision. Then make it count for something, every day of your life. Endeavor towards that goal which you have set out to attain; and do not let the jeers of friends, the opposition, or the envy of foes turn you aside from the purpose you have in mind. Be deaf to the advice of those who have never made a success of life. Be steadfast and unmovable; refusing to let any circumstance, or combination of circumstances, make you falter—make you fail.

Give to the world the best that is in you. Work unceasingly in your efforts to reach the top. Let your faith in the purpose chosen burn and shine with a clear and undimmed light, till it has become a part of your very existence. Make your desire so intense that it will be unmitigatedly felt by others who come in contact with you. Stamp the impression of your desire upon your sphere of action. Keep in your mind the heroes of the past and present. In every line of endeavor, Emulate the great, the noble, the pure, the strong, the brave. Dare to be true to your ideal. Dare to do the right as you see it. Dare to venture out on the sea of life, unaided, and alone. If you fail, and keep on to the journey's end.

With such an attitude, and with such direction, and unflinching, and unflinching faith in your purpose, in your fellow humans, and in infinity, you cannot fail. Fare thee well. Next week: "The Conquest of Fear."

Propose New Negro State For Africa

Baron Blise Day was fittingly celebrated at Corral and Stann Creek by sea regattas and other attractions. We have not yet received an account from Corral and Stann Creek, but we publish a part of the proceedings at Stann Creek. We have to make good the deficiency in our next impression. But for the picnic at Mr. Roache's place on the Haulover, there was nothing to mark the day in Belize. The function was under the auspices of the U. N. I. A. and was pronounced a success. The Euphonic orchestra was in attendance and very charming music was discoursed at intervals. A march was also on the scene and helped to enliven the proceedings.

Miss Clarissa Perriout died on Sunday, March 5 and was buried on Monday evening. Her funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Robert Clegburn at the Presbyterian Church.

Now just as the white race would feel if they were governed and ruled by the Chinese. If we live in our own districts, let us rule and govern those districts. If we have a majority in our communities, let us run those communities. We form a majority in Africa and we should naturally govern ourselves there. No man can govern another's house as well as himself. Let us have fair play. Let us have justice. This is the appeal we make to white America. With best wishes, I have the honor to remain, Your Obedient Servant, MARCUS GARVEY.

Which are you in your organization, a drop of oil that helps to make things run smoothly, or a grain of sand that tends to hurt the gears?

Devotees of Garvey

Black Star Line and mail ship manned by black men into Caribbean ports.

Garvey traveled to Europe and lectured on the program of the new Negro. He was an avowed foe of European imperialism as practiced upon native peoples in Africa and the West Indies.

Garvey made bitter enemies, white and black. In the end they got him through the treachery of his own people. He was tried in those territories, where the Negro World was banned to preserve British prestige.

Garvey was sentenced to five years in Atlanta Penitentiary in 1905. He was paroled by the late President Coolidge after serving half his term, and immediately was deported to Jamaica, B. W. I., his native home.

Word from the Secretary of State, it is understood, says the West Indian, is all that is now awaited for publication of the educational report of the Hon. F. C. Marriot and Arthur Caywood, royal commissioners appointed to make investigations into educational matters in Grenada and other West Indian colonies early last year.

From the same source we call the following on the Closer Union Commission: St. Charles Ferguson, Sir Charles Orr with Mr. Neil Campbell as secretary and M. W. Gilson, stenographer, members of the Closer Union Commission, are expected to arrive here by H. M. S. Heliotrope from St. Vincent.

The commissioners will begin their investigations by holding a public meeting at York House at which the general scope of their inquiries will be explained.

In an article on the Closer Union Commission now in the West Indies, Mr. T. A. Marryshow makes the following reference to General Sir Charles Ferguson, one of the personnel: "I honor the man who in the conscientious discharge of his duty dares to stand alone; the world, with ignorant intolerance and judgment, may condemn, the countenance of relatives may be averted; and the hearts of friends grow cold, but the sense of duty alone shall be sweeter than the applause of the world, the countenance of relatives or the hearts of friends."—Charles Sumner.

Honorable Madam, due to the depression and the continued absence of the President-General, the people are getting quite depressed; yet, there are those who will never accept defeat on our aim.

Denver, Colo., Div. 222

The Denver Division No. 222 is glad to report that the president, Mr. George Brunwood, has had the good fortune of holding us together in the absence of The Negro World.

We are small in number. We held our Sunday meetings in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, 2737 California street. We are glad the paper is coming back and the front page devoted to the Hon. Marcus Garvey's messages.

"An one looks back to those stormy days of Armageddon in which humanity was engaged, one is struck by the fact that when the war started it was entirely a European affair. It was a quarrel among the 'civilized' nations of Western Europe, and the origin in greed and fear. No one dreamed when the first shot was fired that the conflagration which started at Sarajevo would become world-wide, and would involve people of all races and colors.

Negro's Duty to Heed Call of Africa

Must Be Fit for Any Test—Success Is Sure—Fear Nothing—Africa Calls!

Absolutely Necessary to Shoulder Arms to All Our Problems and Meet Test of Time

Race and Daughters of Africa, At Home and Abroad, Friends and Fellowmen:

We are again compelled to call your attention to the fact that this age demands that we prepare ourselves to meet the tests and trials which are ahead for this race of ours.

There is an insistent demand at the present time for men of action, sterling and true; men who know how to serve the race, with unselfish devotion; men who will not shrink from danger and from woe; men who will meet the assaults of time, and weather every gale.

The problems which confront us will tax our best minds, and our greatest energies. We must shape ourselves for the struggle for survival. We must be ready for the call of duty to our race. We must be heroes in the strife. We realize that there is going to be all kinds of opposition to the onward, upward progress of the Negro people of the world. We must be firm in our endeavors to reach the goal we have set before us. We must prepare for every test, every trial; and not be daunted. Fate is calling to us in insistent tones, which will not down, till we have answered the call, and demonstrated to this world the fact that we are men to be reckoned with—at for any emergency.

It is absolutely necessary that we shoulder arms to all our problems, and go forth to meet all the tempests of time. In marching forward to the place which destiny has prepared for us, we must be ready for the worst which can come. Dangers must have no terrors for us. We shall be tried and proven; and our souls will have to be purged from every stain. The honor and glory of our fatherland, and the progress and emancipation of our race are the things which must inspire us in all our efforts. Our boys and girls will have to be taught that there is nothing more transcendent than the glory of our homeland, and the uplift of the race.

Ever we attain the place upon which we have set our hopes, we must begin to lay the foundation for the economic future of the race. Our mills, farms, stores, factories, our railroads, our steamship lines, and other enterprises, must be reared and kept going by our money, our energies, and our training, to provide for ourselves, and for the generations yet to come.

There must be no faltering. There must be no turning back. There is no middle path. This great race of ours moves forward to victory or to death. Every man in whose veins flows the life-blood of Africa must rise up to the measure of men, undaunted, sterling, and true. The heroes of the past must again inspire us to greatness and to glory. Ever, before our visions must rise the great achievements of our fathers in the days of old. We shall have to live again the "Glory that was Carthage." We shall have to meet the invaders, and hunt him from our shores. We shall have to meet competition in every form, and come out victorious. We must prove ourselves "BURNERS" worthy of the approbation of our God; and our admiration to all true Negroes! The time is at hand. The time must be about the race's business. There is nothing on earth, or in the waters under the earth, which can keep us from ultimately reaching our place in the sun. There is nothing which can prevent us from securing full and free emancipation for our race, from every form of bondage.

Insistently calling to us, urging us onward to the goal. Fate has decreed that "this race must rise!" From four hundred million throats all over creation, we can hear the answering cry that "This race must rise! Africa must be free!" Confident that you will respond to the call of Manhood, Truth, Justice, and Freedom, as sponsored by the Universal Negro Improvement Association (August 1899 of the World) leading you onward, forward, and upward, to conquer every foe to Negro advancement and progress, I have the solemn privilege to remain yours in this most glorious cause,

British Guiana

The British Guiana Daily Chronicle of February 2 publishes the information that a branch of the West Indian National League has been organized in British Guiana under the name of the "East Coast Branch of the West Indian National League. A sub-branch is being established at Plaisance and National Day is to be celebrated on October 27. Mr. W. A. W. Duncan of St. Vincent is the chief moving spirit in the establishment of this league in British Guiana.

If a business makes money it is because a hard-boiled manager is running it. As we get farther from the days of easy exploitations of this country's resources, and as profit margins become narrower, the management job increases in importance. Better management in competitive companies means that any institution must be operated continually well and steadily better.—Hurley.

Mr. Business Man, stop waste and reduce salvaging. You can't make money by buying material at 17 cents per pound, pay someone to spoil it, and "scrap" the waste for less than 8 cents per pound.

HOMELY PHILOSOPHY

THE THING CALLED LUCK
When some good fortune comes to another, you say "He's lucky!" But when it comes to you, you say "I'm smart!" The fact is that luck is usually the natural result of plan, labor and pluck, and not a gift from the skies. It is well to remember that the lucky man is the plucky man, and thus govern yourself accordingly.

Georgia Douglas Johnson.

The Battle Hymn of Africa

By VICTOR G. COHEN

To arms, ye Africa's stalwart sons,
And march to face the foe;
Heed not the belching, fiery guns,
Nor cries of pain and woe.

March, march with firm and steady tread,
Toward the battle heights,
Fear not the living, or the dead,
When fighting for your rights.

Refrain

March to the battle height,
Fight like a Negro knight!
Think of your children's right,
And fight!—fight!—fight!

The fight is on, you must not cringe,
Or how to any man;
Yea, e'en the doors of hell unhang!
But execute your plan.

You've fought for Tom, you've fought for Dick,
You've fought for Harry, too;
Fight now for self, through thin and thick,
Your future lies in you.

Belize

BELIZE, B. H., March 15.—Dr. Hacinto Correa was a passenger from Guatemala on the United Fruit Company's steamer on Friday last. Dr. Correa, who is a native of this colony, has resided in the Republic for about 21 years, during which he qualified in his profession and subsequently became an official of the government. This is his second visit to Belize since he took up residence in Guatemala. It has been occasioned through the death of a dear relative under whose care the doctor was brought up. We refer to the late Miss Anne Moody. We understand that the deceased made certain bequests to the doctor. We welcome Dr. Correa and trust that his visit though mingled with grief will be an enjoyable one.

Mr. Richard (Dick) Maggs died suddenly in Corozal during the past week.

We gather that the representative of the Green Star Line who was due to arrive here sometime in January, is expected to arrive in Belize in the near future from Panama by plane. The company is reported to be interested in the banana industry.

The Rev. A. G. Burnham paid a visit to Northern River and conducted services on Sunday. The work of the mission seems to be holding up well in that settlement.

Jamaica

A statement of the revenue collections up to January last shows that the amount collected for import duties upto that date was $607,184. This exceeded the budget estimates by $44,884. Rum duties yielded during the same period $182,126 or a surplus over the budget estimate of $12,364. In round figures the surplus of the import and rum duties for ten months of the current financial year showed a surplus of $37,282. These figures are likely to form the basis of the discussion of the estimates for the coming financial year, to show that the anticipated deficit of $63,000 on next year's transactions is overestimated.

The Hon. C. A. Reid, M. L. C. for Manchester, will witness a demonstration of the reeling of silk grown in Jamaica, at the Technical School, Kingston. There will also be an exhibit of one of the new silk worm rearing cages which are being loaned to silk worm rearers. Also of fabrics made from silk grown and reeled in Jamaica, thrown and woven in England. The use of the oven for the killing of the cocoons will also be explained. All interested in the silk industry are invited to attend. The reeling demonstration will be continued indefinitely every day except Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays.

The Hon. Evan Morgan, son of Viscount Tredgar, is a keen fisherman and since he arrived in Jamaica he has indulged in this sport very fully. He admitted that he had not had a great deal of luck, the biggest fish he caught being a fifteen-pound barracuda. "But," he said, "I have been tremendously interested in watching the life around, and it has been most fascinating to me, a person who does not live in the tropics."

Mr. William Cowper, M. A., headmaster of Jamaica College, will be retiring on pension from April 24. Mr. Cowper, some time ago, decided to retire as head of the college but was persuaded by the Jamaica Schools Commission to carry on for a longer period. Mr. Cowper will be residing in Jamaica after his retirement.

Trinidad

Gold and silver centenary commemorative medals struck in 1897 to commemorate the centenary of the annexation of Trinidad to the British Crown have been forwarded by the government for exhibition in the Museum of the Royal Victoria Institute and may be seen there at any time by any one interested.

H. M. S. Frohisher is making her first cruise as a seagoing training ship for cadets of Dartmouth and public school entries. This cruise, which started from Chatham on January 17, is planned to last three months. Their first port of call was Gibraltar from where they steamed to Grenada where they spent four days. H. M. S. Frohisher on leaving Trinidad will call at Barbados and will then go to St. Lucia, Argentina, the Azores and Bermuda, returning to Chatham on April 7.

Mr. Roderick More O'Ferrall, the noted Irish horse-owner-trainer, now in Trinidad paid a visit to Union Park and pronounced it to be one of the best tracks in the West Indies. He was accompanied from Port of Spain by Mr. Alfred Pereira, secretary of the Trinidad Turf Club; Mr. Henry Hart and Dr. Cyril Gittens. After seeing a number of horses at exercise, Mr. O'Ferrall went on to Home Ste. Madeline where he spent the rest of the day as the guest of Mr. O. F. Bennett, traffic manager of the Usine, and the most successful horse trainer in Trinidad.
